Safe Harbor Statement

This presentation, in association with Oclaro's third quarter of fiscal year 2017 financial results conference call, contains statements about management's future expectations, plans or prospects of Oclaro and its business, and together with the assumptions underlying these statements, constitute forward-looking statements for the purposes of the safe harbor provisions of The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements include statements concerning (i) financial guidance for the fiscal quarter ending July 1, 2017 regarding revenues, non-GAAP gross margin, and non-GAAP operating income, (ii) customer demand for Oclaro's products, and (iii) Oclaro's future financial performance and operating prospects. Such statements can be identified by the fact that they do not relate strictly to historical or current facts and may contain words such as "anticipate," "estimate," "expect," "forecast," "project," "intend," "plan," "believe," "will," "should," "outlook," "could," "target," "model," "objective," and other words and terms of similar meaning in connection with any discussion of future operations or financial performance. There are a number of important factors that could cause actual results or events to differ materially from those indicated by such forward-looking statements, including (i) our ability to timely develop, commercialize and ramp the production of new products to customer required volumes, (ii) the absence of long-term purchase commitments from many of our long-term customers, (iii) our dependence on a limited number of customers for a significant percentage of our revenues, (iv) competition and pricing pressure, (v) our ability to meet or exceed our gross margin expectations, (vi) the effects of fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates, (vii) our manufacturing yields, (viii) the risks associated with delays, disruptions or quality control problems in manufacturing, (ix) our ability to conclude agreements with our customers on favorable terms, (x) our ability to obtain governmental licenses and approvals for international trading activities or technology transfers, including export licenses, (xi) our ability to respond to evolving technologies, customer requirements and demands, and product design challenges, (xii) the impact of financial market and general economic conditions in the industries in which we operate and any resulting reduction in demand for our products, (xiii) our ability to effectively manage our inventory, (xiv) our dependence on a limited number of suppliers and key contract manufacturers, (xv) our ability to have our manufacturing lines qualified by our customers, (xvi) our ability to protect our intellectual property rights, (xvii) the outcome of tax audits or similar proceedings, (xviii) the risks associated with our international operations, (xix) the outcome of pending litigation against us, and (xx) other factors described in our most recent annual report on Form 10-K and other documents we periodically file with the SEC.
